CHICAGO, SATURDAY, MARCH 25, 1899.

TWO BIG RACES TODAY.

Two stake races of great importance in the eyes of turfmen will be decided this afternoon. One, the Crescent City Derby, is the main and closing event of the long winter meeting at New Orleans. The other, The Burns Handicap, is by all odds the chief event of the California turf and because of its value and the quality of the horses engaged would be a race of absorbing interest on any track in this country.

The Burns Handicap is a guaranteed stake of the value of $10,000, for three-year-olds and upward, distance 1 1/4 miles. The announced starters and jockeys are as follows:

J. McCaffery's b. h, What'er Lou, 5, (Hennessey)	121

The Crescent City Derby is a dash of 1 1/8 miles, for three-year-olds, and is of the guaranteed value of $4,000. The contestants are to be: A. H. & D. H. Morris' Kentucky Colonel, b. c, by Kantaka—Nocturne, 115. (Littlefield.) J. P. Robinson's King Barleycorn, ch. c, by Kantaka—Nattot, 115. (W. Martin.) J. A. ## JOCKEY CLUB PROCEEDINGS.

The stewards of the Jockey Club held a busy session at New York Thursday and disposed of a lot of matters bearing on the coming turf session. Present at the meeting were August Belmont, F. R. Hitchcock, Andrew Miller and F. K. Sturgis. An important question regarding the importation of pure Arab blood stock was considered, and the following resolution was adopted:

"Resolved, That the registration of pure Arabs be accepted in the stud book, to be classified under the head of Arabs. Such a abs, if imported, must either have been recognized by stud book abroad as pure Arabs or whose pedigrees for five generations are certified to by a Sheikh. If bred in this country, to be descendants of such horses."

The following list of officials appointed for the Washington Jockey Club meeting was approved:

Starter, Mars Cassidy; judge, Clarence McDowell; handicapper, W. S. Vosburgh; clerk of the scales, H. G. Crickmore; paddock and patrol judge, J. L. Hall; timer, W. H. Barretto.

Samuel Ross was appointed official steward to represent the Jockey Club at the Washington meeting, and the appointment of S. S. Howland and Jesse Brown as associate stewards was approved.

W. S. Vosburgh was appointed official steward to represent the Jockey Club at the meeting.

The bill of George W. Salter, M. D., for professional services rendered to trainer Albert Cooper, was approved and ordered paid.

The applications for reinstatement lodged by jockey John G. Dorsey and trainers John Croker and Luke Tully were denied.

The application of Andrew Fagan for the reinstatement of the bay gelding Sprite was denied.

The bay mare, Empress Peyton, by Circassian—Fannie Peyton, was declared eligible to race on all courses under Jockey Club jurisdiction.

LITTLE ROCK'S PROSPECTS.

Of racing prospects and training operations at Little Rock the Arkansas Gazette of Thursday says:

"The Arkansas Jockey Club meeting begins Thursday next. There will be six races every day of the meeting. There are three well filled stakes to be decided during the meeting, the Derby, the Pine Bluff Stakes, and the Tennessee Brewing Co.'s Selling Stakes.

"The Derby closed with thirty-eight entries and they are all good average three-year-olds. Any half dozen of them would make a splendid race. But the prospects are that the field will be much larger. At least ten or twelve are now expected to make the race. There are ten or twelve of the candidates on the ground and nine or ten more eligibles will be here when the meeting begins. Those already here are Mona B., Air Blast, Ada T., Lillie Paxton, The Trimmer, Bert Davis, Mad Anthony, Katie Gibbons, Exception, Mabel M., The Pride and Golden Standard. Will Darden has two entered, Sagitta and Leo Planter, and will certainly start one, most likely the latter. Tom Hayes has Granby and St. Wood and may start either; W. H. May & Son have Jockey Joe and Ed Tipton in the stake; J. H. McAvoy & Co. have Hardy Pardee and Prince McClurg; Abe Cahn, Sir Gatian and Lurdan, and Mr. Schorr has five to pick from. Besides these there are T. E. Barrett's Tentons; George C. Bennett's Hittick; C. F. Buschmeyer's The Barrister; J. C. Cahn's Chancery; P. M. Civill's Red Admiral; Cushing's Tulane; John Huffman's May Droit; W. H. Laudeman's Onomastus; R. E. Maddox's St. Vrain; Sam Oppenheimer's Nobleman, and J. W. O'Neill & Co.'s great colt Frank Bell.

"Of the dozen already here all intend now to start, but much depends on what they do in the way of work between now and Derby day. Owners and trainers are not giving out much information as to their intentions, but from what can be gathered now, the probable starters in the Arkansas Derby are put down as follows:

"George C. Bennett & Co.—Hittick.
"O. W. Boardman—Mona B.
"W. L. Cassidy—Air Blast.
"W. W. Darden—Leo Planter.
"J. D. Dearing—Lillie Paxton.
"F. Garner—The Trimmer.
"J. B. Gray—Bert Davis.
"T. P. Hayes—Granby.
"W. H. Laudeman—Onomastus.
"Leigh & Jordan—Mad Anthony.
"P. J. Miles—Exception.
"T. H. Ryan—The Pride.
"John W. Schorr & Son—Ordaung.
"G. W. Yelverton—Mabel W.

"That would give the Derby a field of fourteen good ones, and it is probable that it will not fall much short of that number.

"As to jockeys, it is difficult to tell just yet what boys will have mounts in the race. Lonnie Clayton, the crack colored knight of the pike, whose home is at Little Rock, and who always rides here, is already in town and his services are in great demand. He will have a mount in the Derby, but which one is as yet uncertain. Burns will ride Ordnung, Lines will be on Air Blast and J. Harris will pilot Mr. Dearing's candidate.

"The work of getting ready is being pushed forward by all the trainers now. The track is in splendid condition and work begins early and continues late. Large numbers of horses were out yesterday morning and some very good work was done. As far as the ground is concerned, the going was splendid, but a strong wind blew down the homestretch all morning that made really fast work difficult on the last eighth. The most sensational work of the morning was done by Mr. Boardman's Derby candidate, Mona B. The filly worked by herself and she fairly set the track on fire for the first half of the route, but slackened up perceptibly when facing the wind on the homestretch. She broke in front of the stand and in eleven seconds had passed the first eighth pole. She reached the quarter in 24; the half in 49; five-eighths in 1:02; six furlongs in 1:16; seven eighths in 1:35 and finished the mile in 1:46. She was not urged to any extent, but she was tired at the finish. Her work is considered the best done here this spring and indicates, that, while she may perhaps not be of Derby class, she is a sprinter to be respected at any distance under a mile.

"Colonel Cassidy's Air Blast worked the Derby distance Tuesday morning with the old mare Kittie B. for a running mate. They negotiated the distance in 1:47, the mare being under restraint most of the route.

"Air Blast hardly shows stake class but is improving every day. Paul Miles' filly, Exception was set down for seven-eighths yesterday morn-

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Concerning the doings of the horses in training at Montgomery Park, the Memphis Commercial-Appeal of Thursday, says:

"Kentucky Colonel's fast workout was the subject of discussion yesterday among turfites in Memphis. The handsome son of Kantaka shouldered 110 pounds and fairly startled the natives at Montgomery Park with something of a sensational performance. It was the intention of Robert Walden and Charles Patterson to give the final tryouts to Kentucky Colonel and Jolly Roger respectively this morning, but lowering clouds and unfavorable weather predictions caused them to administer the finishing touches yesterday morning. The track record at Montgomery Park for the mile is 1:42, held jointly by Ethel (in 1892), Typhoon II. and Millstream. Yesterday the Morris colt was sent, unaccompanied, a mile in 1:43, finishing the mile and a quarter in 2:13. The fractional time was, 25, 50, 1:02, 1:15, 1:29, 1:43, 1:59, 2:13.

"After this performance Jolly Roger negotiated nine furlongs, the distance of the Derby, in 1:59. The fractional time was: 25, 50, 1:18, 1:46 and 1:59.

"Queen of Song, W. J. Smith's good filly, was not brought out, and her owner is undecided about shipping her to New Orleans. She will be given a workout this morning and on the strength of it lies her chances of being a contender in the Derby. The chances are, however, that she will remain in her stall at Montgomery Park, unless by some means Mr. Schorr can be influenced to allow Burns to take the mount.

"Mannal was breezed yesterday morning a mile in 1:48. The Kentuckian worked the same distance in 1:46, Meadowthorpe and Sea Lion in 1:47, and W. W. Darden's Arkansas and Tennessee Derby candidate Leo Planter the same route in 1:49. J. J. Marklein's good looking two-year-old chestnut colt Helmet, by Knight of Ellerslie—Phoebe, went five-eighths in 1:05.

"Lieber Karl's lameness, while not as serious as first reported, will keep the Schorr horse in confinement for the majority of the early spring events. Trainer Walker shakes his head dubiously when asked whether the Tennessee Derby winner of '98 will be able to fill engagements up the line. The lameness is of a character hard to determine how long it will remain.

"After working six furlongs in 1:21, accompanied by Wilson, yesterday, Ordnung, J. W. Schorr's & Son's candidate who was being pointed for the Arkansas Derby, pulled up lame and limped to the barn, suffering from nervousness. Although this colt has faced the starter but twice, he gave good promise of developing into a stake colt in his work this year. This leaves Cathedral, Sea Lion and Albert Swind from which a starter in the Arkansas Derby will be picked."

Ex-jockey Harry Blaylock died a few days ago. Stricken with paralysis something more than a year ago he lingered on in helplessness until a finishing stroke of the disease came. In his prime Blaylock ranked high as a rider and his skill was often exhibited on Chicago race-tracks when riding for Edward Corrigan and other western owners. He left a widow and several children.

At a meeting of the Executive Committee of the National Steeplechase and Hunt Association held Wednesday licenses were granted to the following jockeys to ride in hurdles races and steeplechases for 1899: M. Lynch, J. Owens, George Chandler, George B. Anderson, Frank Huston, Emanuel Melder, Julius Slack, Pat Callahan, Henry Johnson, John Hogan, George Cochran, Cornelius Sprague, Patrick Deegan, W. A. Green and William Canavan.

ing, working it in 1:35. Marito of the same stable breezed five-eighths in 1:04 and The Hub worked the same distance in 1:02.

"A good deal of work was done by the two-year-olds, the most notable being that by McGuigan's Edinburgh, who was set down for his first fast half. He made it in :52 with his head swinging. McGuigan was highly elated over his colt's good showing and offered to bet $500 that he could beat any two-year-old on the track. It is probable that a match may be made to be decided during the meeting.

"Frank Leigh worked his Leonatus filly and a St. Florian colt together in :52 1-2, the colt showing a half length in front at the finish. Sir Fitzhugh, a strapping, good-looking Deceiver colt, and Chump, a small unattractive filly, worked a half together in :52 1-4, the Deceiver beating the filly out by two lengths. Gardner's two-year-old, a handsome big colt called Banana, worked a half handily in :54 and work in similar time was done by a number of others."

NOTES OF THE TURF.

The officials of the Pacific Coast Jockey Club have decided to make use of the privilege of running the remainder of their races over the track of the California Jockey Club at Oakland. Scheduled stake races amounting to $14,000 remain to be decided, besides over $50,000 in purses. The four-mile race for the Ingleside Stakes will probably be decided April 8, and the California Derby April 15.

Because so many owners desired the services of jockey Burns to ride their Crescent City Derby candidates Mr. Schorr decided to avoid making any choice by refusing to allow him to ride in the race.

THE AMERICAN SPORTING MANUAL.

The American Sporting Manual of 1898 is on general sale. It is a record of the turf, billiards, pugilism, trotting, pacing and all the leading lines of sport up to January 1, 1899. #### A FEW YEARLIES FOR SALE.

Some of the many courteous men who study DAILY RACING FORM have sent enough back numbers of the monthlies to make up five more copies of Yearly Racing Form. The book is a glory. Nothing like it in the way of racing literature was ever published before. Within its 3,500 pages are full charts of regular racing from January 1, 1898—No. 3492—to December 31, 1898—No. 10186. That means the full charts of 6,694 races. Yearly Racing Form is luxuriously bound in heavy morocco covers.

It's index runs from January 1, 1897 to December 31, 1898—two years—and is on linen paper with a lettered thumb index.

The first book of this class was built for the editor of DAILY RACING FORM. It served him so well that all the spare sheets of 1898 form were bound into annuals of the same type. Five are being made up and are for sale at $20 per copy. The few books will be sold on the order of application.

Part of paragraph three of rule 98 was made rule 94 which reads as follows: "Declarations in sweepstakes shall be made in the same manner as is provided for making entries therein to the Secretary, who shall record the day and hour of its receipt, and give early publicity thereto."

Any failure to comply with this rule shall be punished by fine or suspension, and if an objection because of such defaults is duly made and sustained against a horse that has run in a race, its winnings in that race shall be forfeited to the horse that finished next behind it."

Rule 52 was amended so as to read "A selling race is one in which every horse entered 'to be sold,' if a loser, may be claimed and if the winner, must be offered for sale at public auction."

Winner—Br. c. by Midlothian—Angelique.
Start straggling. Won easily. Saintly ran in improving form and was easily best today. He is a good colt when right. Ocorona was snited by the muddy course and ran a fair race. Polka was weakly ridden and can do better. The race will probably improve him. Magdalenes was cut off in the stretch and unlucky, but she is an easy quitter when pressed. Gold Baron ran fairly well. The others are very inferior.
Scratched—10960 Somis, 109; 10705 Gold Garter, 109; 10705 Stromboleta, 107; 9938 Cosenzo, 107. Saintly, place, 4 to 5; show, 2 to 5. Ocorona, place, 3 to 1; show, evens. Polka, show, evens.

Winner—B. b. by Aretino—Miss Leon.
Start good. Won cleverly. Truxillo was best snited by the going, well placed and lucky all through. Horatio ran a good race in going he dislikes; a fast track is more to his liking. Don Fulano was high in flesh and not fit for good company. Governor Sheehan pulled up lame. Picnic showed a turn of speed and will do to watch. Oahu was in the fight at the head of the stretch but quit further along. Merry Boy made up ground in the stretch.
Scratched—10225 Mischief, 107; (10995) El Salado, 107; May McCarthy, 105; 10991 Mainbar, 104. Horatio, place, 6 to 5; show, 2 to 5. Don Fulano, show, evens.
